

November 3rd to 5th 2017. Gloucestershire Club Hut, near Deiniolen at Cefn Goch, Gallt y Foel. LL55 3EF.

Hidden back from the road this is hard to find in the dark but warm and welcoming when you do. Go straight through Deiniolen on the main road and continue round the bend past the church. As the road rises up there is a tiny (almost unnoticable) concrete drive between two houses on your left. Go up this and the hut is in front of you. With more space in the enlarged main room this is an excellent hut. Sixteen spaces in three rooms gives one for those who snore, one for those that don't and one for those who say they don't. Cost is only £8.50/night. <https://goo.gl/maps/GZU49hhG6fr>
